

G.W. SMITH SPANISH MONTEREY
Montecito, California

Sotheby's
INTERNATIONAL REALTY

A G.W. SMITH CLASSIC

This impressive George Washington Smith designed home has the distinction of being the last home completed by Smith before the end of his career. Combining some of his best architectural elements, this Spanish style home also incorporates elements of the Monterey style, to bring an almost contemporary flow, feel and spaciousness to the floor plan. Nearly two acres of gardens surround this home and include a pool, spa, 1-bedroom guest house, a staff cottage, and paddle tennis court. The two-story home features a traditional center hall with an elevator, a spacious living room, library & media room, formal dining room, country kitchen, as well as a large master suite and four additional bedrooms. The entire property is walled and gated for privacy.
